

TIPPERARY GARDA YOUTH AWARDS 2015

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

Supermac's[®]

100% IRISH

The Gardaí of Tipperary Division, in association with Supermac's, are holding an awards ceremony for young people between the ages of 13 and 19 years.

These awards recognise the very positive contribution young people are making in their communities.

Awards will be considered for nominated young people who, by their activities, make their communities a better place to live in, or who have shown great determination in their own lives.

Nominations will also be accepted for a group of young people, such as a committee or sub-committee, or any other group that meets the criteria.

Award winners will be notified in writing and will be invited to attend an awards ceremony which will be held at the Garda College Templemore on a date to be confirmed in April 2016.

If you would like to nominate any young person(s) for these awards please complete this form (in as much detail as possible) and return it to
